... Primary

Incumbents in all three Assembly Districts which cut through the city are opposed in the primary.

In the 46th District, Robert G. Beverly, a Republican, is being opposed by Stan Bogess of Palos Verdes. Democratic ballots will list James C. Roberts of Redondo Beach and Warren H. Scherich of Palos Verdes.

ASSEMBLYMAN L. E. (Larry) Townsend, a Democrat, faces two challengers in the 67th Assembly District. They are Al Apodaca of Los Angeles and Walter C. Dworschak of Gardena.

Torrance Realtor Fred Fredericks is seeking the Republican nomination in the 67th District. He is opposed by Tom Tomlin, the GOP candidate in 1966.

In the 68th Assembly District, veteran Assemblyman Vincent Thomas has been challenged by Ed Guerrero, a San Pedro businessman, in the Democratic primary. Republican Paul R. Lookinland of San Pedro is unopposed.

Major interest in the U. S. Senate races have centered on the Republican contest between Senator Thomas Kuchel and Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction.

Alan Cranston, former state controller, is considered the front-runner for the Democratic nod.

JUDGE George R. Perkovich Jr. of the South Bay Municipal Court is seeking re-election in a non-partisan race which has attracted two candidates. They are Eric Rafter, an attorney from Hermosa Beach, and Everett Jones, a Lomita attorney.

Two incumbent supervisors have been challenged in non-partisan races. Supervisor Kenneth Hahn is facing Los Angeles Councilman, Billy Mills for the Second District seat, while Burton W. Chace has been challenged by William T. Charvet in his bid for re-election in the Fourth District.

District Attorney Evelle J. Younger, seeking his second term, has been challenged by Michael Hannon, an attorney.

TWO STATE bond issues also are on the primary ballot. They include a $200 million Veterans Bond Act and a $65 million junior college bond.

The Press-Herald, in editorial today recommends that Judge Perkovich be re-elected and that the Veterans' Bond Act be approved. A No vote is recommended on the junior college bond issue.

In previous editions, the Press-Herald has recommended the re-election of Supervisors Kenneth Hahn and Burton Chace and District Attorney Evelle J. Younger.

Irvin E. Wood

Funeral services for Irvin E. Wood, who died Sunday, were scheduled today at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel with burial following in Inglewood Park Cemetery. The Rev. Robert Dehn will officiate at the rites.

Mr. Wood, who lived at 1564 W. 205th St., was born April 9, 1894, in Canada and had lived in this area for more than 45 years. He was employed for 24 years by the Beverly Hills Fire Department, then worked for more than 10 years at the Douglas Aircraft Co.

Surviving Mr. Wood are his widow, Evelyn E. of Torrance; two sons, Donald P. of Torrance and Robert of Redondo Beach; two daughters, Mrs. Jean Richey of Oklahoma and Mrs. Olive Nolan of Huntington Beach; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are three brothers and a sister.

Dorothy Maples

Funeral services for Dorothy Mae Maples, of 2506 W. 179th St., were conducted yesterday at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Raymond Curley, a nephew and pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oxnard, officiating.

Mrs. Maples, a teacher in the Torrance schools for more than 10 years, died Saturday. She was born Dec. 25, 1910, in Pennsylvania and had lived in Torrance for the past 11 years.

Surviving Mrs. Maples are her husband, Clarence; two sons, Crill and Charles Maples of Ridgecrest, Calif.; a brother, Paul Yard of Oklahoma; and two grandchildren. Burial will be in Nowata, Okla.

To Visit Area

Ellen McCarthy, daughter of presidential candidate Eugene McCarthy, will be the guest of honor at a breakfast Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Hungry Tiger, Palos Verdes Peninsula Center.

A motorcade through the Southwest area, Westchester, Santa Monica and West Hollywood will join McCarthy Democrats in Beverly Hills for dinner at 9717 Wilshire Blvd. at 6 p.m.

... Exams

Councilmen deadlocked over what to do about the specific situation regarding the accountant. They chalked up a 3-3 vote on whether to hire the new man or inform him that a mistake had been made. Councilmen Ken Miller, Ross Sciarrotta, and Donald E. Wilson voted to hire the man.

Since no decision could be reached, councilmen agreed to refer the matter back to Dundore for his decision. The legislators commented they believe Dundore and the city management staff acted in "good faith" when they made this selection.

Customer Holds Up Donut Bar

Police are looking for a man in his 30s who reportedly held up Dunkin' Donuts 22510 Crenshaw Blvd., early Tuesday morning.

The waitress on duty at the snack stand told police the man ordered coffee at about 12:30 a.m. and sat down for 20 minutes, apparently waiting for other customers to leave.

She said the suspect then pulled a gun and demanded the contents of the cash register. He escaped with $64.

County supervisors have approved an $8,000 allocation for the improvement of Chace said today.

Supervisors instructed the County Road Department to start work this week. Work will consist of constructing concrete gutters and utility intersections.
